

LIX SPARKLING ROSÉ
0% ALCOHOL
DE-ALCOHOLISED WINE-BASED DRINK

LIX, the Roman numeral for 59, is a low-calorie, dealcoholized wine with less than 59 calories per glass.

Grape Variety

Garnacha

Winemaking

We select the finest Garnacha grapes and carry out a cold maceration for 4 hours to extract their full aromatic potential. The wine is then dealcoholized using the revolutionary GoLo technology through low-temperature vacuum distillation. This method uses vacuum pressure to lower the temperature required for dealcoholization, making it the most respectful technique for preserving the original aromas and structure of the wine.

Afterward, fresh grape must is added, and the wine is carbonated until the desired pressure is achieved.

Suitable for vegetarians and vegans.

Tasting Notes

Colour: Pale pink colour.

Aroma: Very fruity, with hints of honey and forest fruits.

Flavour: Tasty and refreshing. In the mouth, the creaminess of the gas recalls the aromas of fruit combined with a slightly sweet but fresh flavour.

Pairing

Ideal to have as an aperitif or as a dessert.

Serving Suggestions

Always serve very cold, at about 4°C.
